

RINNAI PRESTIGE SOLAR WITH INSTANTANEOUS GAS BOOSTING

When a Rinnai Prestige solar water heater is combined with a Rinnai Infinity continuous flow gas heater, you have the most efficient style of solar gas heater available, making it 150% more efficient than an old fashioned gas storage heater with a solar boost. The Prestige solar heater works as a pre-heater, collecting energy from the sun whenever it is available, even in the middle of winter. When you turn a hot water tap on, the water from the solar pre-heater passes through the Rinnai Solar Infinity which boosts the temperature to the Australian standard requirement of 60°C. If the temperature of the water from the pre-heater is already at 60°C, the gas boost does not need to come on at all.
